

About BillsListRentals.com

As landlords, seasoned in the challenges and rewards of the rental property business, we started out trying to fill the need landlords and property managers had. Our goal was to meet the advertising challenges in an ever-changing market to include the newest, most effective way to advertise - without all the freebees and giveaways.

We used Bill Larcheid, owner of WJL Properties, to pilot our project. He had four buildings in the Milwaukee area with more vacancies than ever. We researched market techniques for advertising, creative solutions to cut advertising costs, design, and visibility effectiveness. We succeeded in creating a model for advertising that generates leads for landlords inexpensively and effectively. In two months, we had Bill Larcheid at WJL Properties totally full at all locations!

We continued to acquire new landlords to advertise their Wisconsin housing for rent, and have been extremely successful in filling their vacancies. This has saved them incredible amounts of money and time while generating more quality leads.

BillsListRentals.com makes renting easy. Whether you are a landlord or a tenant, we have a solution for you.
